Minden Thriving With New Faces And Business

This small community of Minden is on the move these days with the summer season approaching in full swing.

Over the past year and especially this spring many new faces have come to Minden to establish new business or take over ones already in operation. These new people will certainly be an asset to Minden, especially those starting new businesses which are essential to any community. Minden now offers almost a complete line of businesses and trades, along with all the professions.

Opening up a Dental Practise this week was John Purc, established in a very modern office on the Bobcaygeon Road. This building has just been completed by Contractor Don Campbell. Another young man arrived in town this week, Mr. Richard Parisotto the new clerk of Anson, Hindon and Minden. Mr. Parisotto comes from Hornepayne Ont. Mr. John Pentney is the new owner of Crest Hardware, formerly owned by Walt and Mable Wideman. William Ingram is a new plumber and heating man with 25 years experience in the business. Mr. Ingram comes from Toronto. The sheet metal trade has been added to the list of trades in Minden with Robert Graham starting this new business on the by-pass. Mr. Graham hails from Port Colborne. Sanitation is a important item in every community and Minden was fortunate when Mr. Jim Garbutt took over the garbage collection. Mr. Garbutt is also building a new coin operated car wash. Bill O'Brien adds to the youth in business here in Minden when he purchased the Rockcliffe Hotel this spring. This young fellow and his wife added to the population this week with the arrival of a new baby girl. Mr. John Sault is a very cheerful big fellow, who took over the Gulf station, on the by-pass. A couple of very important tradesmen added to the community last year was Larry McKenzie in the Glass and Mirror business and A. Beaver a decorator, both these men are from Toronto with plenty of experience behind them. The K. & W. Restaurant operated by Mrs. Gladys Wruth and her sons Garth and Sheridan Kellett have been a credit to our main street. Another fine addition in the food business is VanZeyl's Restaurant. The VanZeyl family took over from Doris and Norm Craig last year. Gary Doyle contributed to this area also with his stylish Granny's House on the by-pass.

We extend a warm welcome to all these people and know they will be successful in their business here in Minden. They couldn't have picked a more progressive town, surrounded by the beautiful Highlands.

COUNCIL STRONGLY OBJECTS TO COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION REQUISITION

The following are the minutes of the meeting of the Council of Anson, Hindon and Minden, held in the Council Chambers on Wednesday, May 13, 1970 with Reeve Charles Brandon in the chair.

Present were Deputy Reeve Roy Windover, Councillors Reg Booth, Al Cooper, Road Overseer Earl Hewitt and By-Law officer S. Weiss.

After a great deal of correspondence was read, council adjourned until after dinner. At 1:15 Council re-assembled.

The first motion made was that Council strongly objected to the Haliburton County Board of Education's requisition of $275,158.00 from this Municipality for 1970. Council considered that this levy places an undue burden on the rate payers of this Municipality. It was suggested that the board apply to the Department of Education for assistance to help relieve the burden on the people of this area. Carried.

It was passed by Council that the Road Superintendent be instructed to purchase the necessary culverts for road purposes for 1970 from Fawcett Metal Products and Pedlars Ltd, as per attached list. Subject to the approval of the District Municipal Engineer. Fawcett Metal Products, $2,989.40. Pedlars Ltd, $1,174.02.

Council passed the general accounts to be paid in the sum of $12,960. and the Road Accts in the amount of $5,284.72.

TWO FROM MINDEN GRADUATE AS RNA

Graduation exercises of the ninth graduating class of Registered Nursing Assistants was held Friday afternoon, May 15, in the board room of Ross Memorial Hospital Lindsay.

Graduating was Mrs. Irene Moxam and Miss Marianne Dollo, of Minden.

The course covers a 35-week period. The first three months are devoted to theory and practice; the latter part of the training period is clinical experience, under the supervision of the Clinical Instructor and the Head Nurse of the assigned wards.

Object of the course is to prepare the student to care for the patient who is not acutely ill and to assist the registered nurse in caring for the acutely ill patient.

Presentation of pins and certificates were made by Mrs. G. Mackey, Mrs. R. Saanum and administrator Eric Freeborn.

The bedside nursing award was presented by E. J. Williams and won by Mrs. Irene Moxam. Congratulations ladies.

BINGO WINNER

Mrs. Wayne Anderson was the lucky winner of the full card for $25.00 on Thursday evening at the Minden Rotary Bingo. Congratulations.

HERE AND THERE

with Fenwick Finch

The holiday week-end has come and gone and no serious accidents to otherwise mark the time.

The main street and alleys were nearly all cleaned of their debris and our visitors were greeted by a neat looking community. The merchants involved in the clean-up deserve a great deal of credit. Now, if the "litterbugs" who keep spreading this junk will show a little responsibility and, when they are through with their bottles etc. they don't break them all over the streets and alleys the job of keeping the village clean and presentable will be an easy one.

As in the past when I run across something good I like to pass it on — this spot I haven't visited yet but Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Coburn were so enthusiastic about the service they received that I have no qualms in saying it must be good.

South Lake Lodge, under the ownership of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Freeman is the place the Coburns were talking about. The meals there apparently are excellent and the hospitality unbeatable.

Two people are involved in this next little item which I am in accord. Mrs. Kay Lunham clipped this piece for me and MacKenzie Porter, Telegram columnist remarked on the same piece. The clipping concerned the remarks of Miss Elizabeth, Headmistress of one of Britain's leading girl's schools.

"You are here on money which you have not earned. There are thousands of young people who would give anything to be where you are today. So, if you don't like it go and get a job in a factory. If that is beneath your dignity then starve, because the community which you despise, and which you are doing your best to destroy, is not prepared to feed, clothe and house you any longer."

The message is good but unfortunately doesn't apply here — welfare is given to these characters — jobs are found for them and we even shelter and condone army deserters from the U.S. Concerning these latter — if they are no good to their country in which they were born, how much good are they to Canada? Little or no use is my opinion, but, the taxpayers are forced to carry them. They receive more benefits than a hard-working Canadian but this seems to be the way of life today.

Received a tear sheet of the Los Angeles Times from Mrs. Elinor Kent concerning Chicano Graffiti an exhibition that is going on display at Pomona College Art Gallery.

This collection is the result of over 20 years of collecting by a New Jersey toolmaker Robert Allikkas. Some of the local wall writings are over thirty years old. Allikas is convinced the highly stylized graffiti forms has its origins in Los Angeles and that examples found in El Paso and other cities are cultural transplants.

So, you see this graffiti is coming into its own. Back in the hungry 30's when I travelled a great deal through central and eastern Canada every wash room had it's scores of writings — most of these have gone by the board and, as I said before the new washrooms with their modern walls don't take to writing very easily, and if written on are cleaned too easily. I'm in favour of the owners putting up a "graffiti board" and maybe this won't become a lost art.

AWARD FIRST HONORARY DIPLOMA AT SIR SANDFORD CONVOCATION

Canada's first electro-mechanical technology graduates were among 264 Sir Sandford Fleming College students from Peterborough and Lindsay taking part in the College's third convocation May 16 at George Street United Church, Peterborough.

The largest graduating class to date saw the award of the College's first honorary diploma, which was presented to Trent University President and Vice-chancellor Thomas H. B. Symons in recognition of his five years of distinguished personal service on Sir Sandford's Board of Governors.

Making this presentation, Sir Sandford Academic Council Chairman Robert Geddes noted that despite President Symon's duties as chief academic and administrative officer of an emerging university, and his active role in the political, social and cultural life of the region, province and nation, he had devoted many personal hours to the work of the community college, both during the years when the institute was in the planning stage, and in the three years of its operation.

"His wise and thoughtful counsel has been of immense help to everyone at Sir Sandford Fleming College," Mr. Geddes said, adding that the College honorary diploma was "richly deserved, and gratefully offered".

The other "first" involved 8 electro-mechanical graduates who had completed a unique three-year program blending principles of electricity and mechanics, which equipped them as specialists in many areas of automation.

Diplomas and certificates were presented by R. C. Short, president of St. Lawrence College, Kingston. He was assisted by two Sir Sandford students. Ross Toms, president of the Students' Administrative Council of the Peterborough Campus and John Holton, president of the Lindsay Campus' Committee for the Administration of Student Affairs.

A welcome from the Board of Governors was extended by Board Vice-chairman R. J. Curry of Haliburton.

WATER SAFETY

All set to dig out your swimming gear for the summer months ahead? Well, before you do, just pause for one moment, for now's a good time to think about the importance of taking special care whenever you're near water.

Last year saw a drop in the drowning statistics from 1968. This is most encouraging. However, there's one thing that is alarming. It's the fact that so many drownings result from sheer carelessness. Let's have a look at the details to see why.

First, over 10% of the persons drowned were unsupervised children under the age of 12. The Red Cross stresses the risks involved in allowing young children to play alone. Children of this age are very adventurous and love to roam off by themselves. This makes it doubly important to watch them at all times whenever they are near water. A toddler in a paddle pool can drown within minutes if he falls face down. And a child playing with an inflated toy in shallow water can easily be carried into danger by a light gust of wind.

Another thing is that fully 65% of the drownings resulted from accidental entry into water. Most of these cases involved people falling out of boats or falling into water from dry land. Here again, lack of care played a big part. For example, it stands against all reason to overload a boat, yet people continue to do this and end up losing their lives. Non-swimmers should always wear a life jacket when they're out in a boat, and in a power boat it is vital that everyone sit in a secure position.

With respect to swimming, it's always wise to stick to supervised areas. Swimming alone in unknown waters can be very dangerous.

An effective way of being prepared against all these water hazards is to take a course in water safety. The Canadian Red Cross Water Safety Service offers just this. Its comprehensive programme includes the instruction of swimming, adaptability of the body to water, and various rescue methods. There are also special courses, including survival swimming and instructor training. Last year as many as 700,000 Canadians enrolled in the programmes. Why not do the same yourself this year, or least, arrange for your children to do so? Once a child has learned the benefits of water safety he will never forget them.

The Red Cross here hold their classes both here at the town dock and for younger children at Twelve Mile Lake. These courses are complete with excellent instruction, and safety of course is one of the main topics. Watch for a registration notice in this paper in the near future — have your children join, it's a smart move.

JUST A REMINDER

Just another reminder to all those Minor Hockey players and parents — this Saturday evening, May 23rd, the Minden Minor Hockey Association will be holding their annual wind-up banquet. Guests will be Arnie Brown and Wally Tkaczuk of the New York Rangers. Trophies and crests will also be presented. Make it a date, you will be in for a good evening of entertainment.

REGION 4 HELD SPRING RALLY

The United Church Women of the Kinmount Legion Ladies Auxiliary. The evening session began at 6:15 with the singing of Hymn 500, after which Miss Vina Neal of Victoria Road conducted a very meaningful Memorial Service.

Mrs. Palmer, of Fenelon Falls Past President of Lindsay Presbyterian brought greetings. There were 7 Presbyterian Secretaries and chairmen present and they gave interesting reports.

Mrs. Fielder, representative at Coboconk gave a report on material available in films and other services designed to help with Christian education. The Baddow UCW presented a skit called "Younger Women and the UCW," which very aptly portrayed what we can do to

A warm welcome was extended to everyone by Mrs. MacKay on behalf of the Kinmount UCW.

The roll call was answered by 7 of the 8 churches in the Region.

Mrs. Fielder of Coboconk read the minutes of the last Rally and an invitation was extended by Bexley for the 1971 Rally. It will be held at Victoria Road United Church.

Mrs. Bursey, Lindsay Presbyterian President, brought greetings and reminded us that stewardship isn't just the giving of our money but included the giving of ourselves.

Mrs. Roeske then introduced the guest speaker Rev. Wesley Oake of Minden. He spoke about the United Church Renewal Fellowship. The UCRF is an unofficial organization of the United Church and was established in 1967 and now has 3 Chapters and 700 members. Rev. Oake stated that the organizations main concern is to keep the Church together and said if we were to keep our Churches open two things were very important, these were prayer and bible study. The UCRF is partially financed by a magazine called "The Small Voice", and a number of copies were left for those present. In closing Rev. Oake asked that every UCW member adhere to article 2 of the United Church doctrine which is in part, "We receive the Holy Scripture of the Old and New Testaments, given by inspiration of God, as containing the infallible rule of faith and life, a faithful record of God's gracious revelations and as the sure witness to Christ".

A trio from Coboconk sang, "When Jesus Walked in Galilee."

Mrs. Gilson, Literature Secretary, gave a report on the new books available.

A salad plate supper was served in the Legion Hall by help others if we have a willing heart and mind, and pointed out some "pit falls" to be avoided by the UCW's, concluding that we are the church in the place where we are. A short discussion followed.

The offering was received and dedicated by Victoria Road.

It was decided to have an afternoon and evening session for the 1971 Rally.

Hymn 637 was sung with the benediction by Rev. E. Yoshioka.

FISHIN' FACTS

BY BOB HAWTHORNE

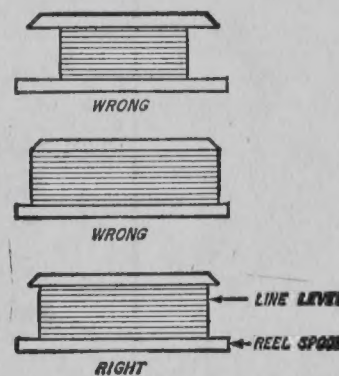

KEEP REEL SPOOL FULL AT ALL TIMES

One of the most common faults in spin fishing is to have either too much or too little line on the reel spool. For best results, the spool should always be kept filled to about one eighth of an inch below the outside flange.

Too much line on the spool will cause many snarls and tangles, whereas too little line on the spool will shorten the distance of your cast considerably. It is, however, much better to have an underfilled spool, than one which is overfilled.

When selecting a spinning reel, purchase a spare spool for your reel and always keep this spool empty. By using the following method, the empty spool will be invaluable to you in always keeping the line on your reel at the correct level.

Wind the line from the manufacturer's spool (usually 100 yards) directly onto the spool on your reel. In most cases you will find that you do not have enough line on the reel. Then take some old fishing line or string to use as backing, and attach it to the line you have already wound onto your reel. Continue winding until you have reached the desired level of one eighth inch below the flange, and then cut the string. Remove the full spool from your reel and insert in its place the empty spare spool you have purchased. Attach the string to the spool and repeat the winding procedure until the first spool is empty. Your new spinning line will now be on top at the correct level on the spool, and the string backing will be underneath.

HORS D'OEUVRES CAN SET THE MOOD OF ANY PARTY.

Next time you're entertaining friends, and would like to give them a gourmet treat that not many people know how to prepare, why not add a special gayness to your party by serving delicious Indian Dry Kawab hors d'oeuvres?

They're not difficult to make and Indian spice specialist Shashi Sawni, who prepares and serves them regularly in the Terrace Lounge of Toronto's Inn On The Park hotel, predicts they can become a real conversation piece with your guests. That's because, as Shashi Sawni will tell you, the secret of Indian cooking lies in the seasoning. And Indian experience with herbs and spices goes back to the beginning of civilized history.

In preparing Indian Dry Kawab hors d'oeuvres, you'll need to blend several kinds of spices. The basic spices required for this recipe will enable you to start building up a spice collection for future gourmet fun cooking.

Shashi Sawi's gourmet recipe for Indian Dry Kawab should give you from 16 to 20 hors d'oeuvres. For perfect results, she recommends that they be served piping hot.

Ingredients:

1 lb. minced beef or meat of your choice
2 medium onions minced or finely grated
1 teaspoon chili powder
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 teaspoon ginger powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1/2 teaspoon garam masala
1/2 teaspoon coriander
Dash powdered cloves
1 finely chopped hot green pepper
1 sachet Bovril beef bouillon powder
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Fat for frying

Method:

Mix all ingredients together. Shape into small patties approximately one quarter inch thick and two inches in diameter. Then fry at low heat until golden brown. Serve with ketchup. A superb variation is to put the mixed ingredients into puff pastry rolls and bake until the pastry is golden.

The spices needed for this recipe are carried by most supermarkets. Garam masala, however, may sometimes be difficult to obtain. It's available from most gourmet specialty stores. If hard to find, Shashi Sawni says it can be omitted provided all the other spices are used.

Now a Postal Strike may be on by Friday of this week. It may not interfere in small villages and with Rural Mail but larger centres are in for real trouble. Pension cheques and others have already arrived for many people for both May and June. It seems too bad that the difficulties cannot be settled without resorting to a strike in this necessary service.

Hint of the week — When planting onions and other seeds, if you put dry sulphur in with the seeds or bulbs, grubs may be kept away.

* * * *

One of the busiest places in this area is often our local Chamber of Commerce. I've heard that everyone is made welcome and information is available to all. Norm Craig and Doris McManus are really very obliging with each person that stops.

* * * *

Patients at the local hospital early this week included Wallace Walker, Mrs. Rose Miscio, Mrs. Alma Peterson, Mrs. Ernest Windover, Mrs. D. Prentice and Mrs. Earl Hewitt. Several new arrivals with congratulations going to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stevens on the arrival of Jason William, grandson of Diane and Holly Stevens. Also to Janie and Bill O'Brien on the arrival of Erin Marie.

Milton Sears is home again after surgery at Ross Memorial Lindsay and is making fine progress.

Sincere sympathy to the family and friends of the late Jack Berry, Pine Springs, whose funeral was late last week.

Wouldn't life be poor and bare
Without these small familiar things;
Flowers beside a garden wall,
A tiny bird with fluttering wings?
For dear backyards just seem to me
The place where Heaven ought to be.
Edna Jaques

Really busy in the village over the weekend; wet and cool early but Sunday and Monday came nice and clear. Now today (Tuesday) really hot.

Cheerio until next week.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE W.I.

The annual meeting of the Minden Womens Institute was at the Modernaire on the evening of April 22, with Mrs. P. Clarke presiding. Nneteen members responded to the roll call of "What Annoys me most at Public meetings."

There was some discussion on the bus trip, and we are to go to the Collingwood - Midland area on May 27th, leaving this village at 8 a.m. Tickets are available at the Cameo.

The secretary is to write regarding having a Food Forum from the extension service this fall or winter.

The annual reports were given and the number of cards sent to sick or shut-ins and others were 211.

Mrs. Allan Gilles, District president, was welcomed and she gave us some ideas on the changes in our organization in the past 25 years. The ladies appreciated this paper and responded with a hearty applause.

Mrs. Gilles also conducted the election of officers with the slate as follows: President Mrs. Clarke, 1st. Vice-President Mrs. M. Sears, 2nd. Vice-President Mrs. H. Welch, Secretary Mrs. Lyman Cox, Treasurer Mrs. A. S. Kernohan. Branch Directors are Mrs. M. O'Neil, Mrs. C. Stevens, Mrs. V. Cowen, Mrs. A. Taylor.

District Directors are Mrs. Vera Cowen, alternate Mrs. H. Welch. Auditors Mrs. O'Neil and Mrs. G. Hewitt. Pianist Mrs. Clarke.

Visiting committee Mrs. D. Prentice, Mrs. W. Moore. Agriculture and Canadian Industry Mrs. Wallace Walker. Citizenship and Education Mrs. W. Locke. Current Events Mrs. B. J. Walker. Historical Research Mrs. J. Fairfield. Public Relations Mrs. W. Moore. Home Economics and Health Mrs. J. Minto Jr. Curator Mrs. J. Sears.

There is to be a draw made at the next meeting on a box of groceries donated by Mrs. J. Minto.

Following the adjournment a delicious lunch and cup of tea was served by the committee.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

It is said that a famous Russian writer one day entered the City of Moscow. A beggar stood at the gates asking alms. The writer turned his pockets inside out and said, "I am sorry, my brother, I have nothing to give you."

The beggar said "Thank You". The author replied, "But I said I had nothing to give you."

The beggar said, "Ah, but you called me brother."

This thought carries its own message doesn't it?

by Lorna Rogers

To some, Ernest Hemingway was America's greatest writer; to others, he was a legend — game hunter, bullfight aficionado, bohemian adventurer. What was the man behind the myth really like? CBC Tuesday Night May 26, takes a definitive look at Hemingway, as seen by his first wife Hadley Richardson Hemingway Mowrer; his biographer A. E. Hotchner; Morley Callaghan, who knew him in Paris; poet Archibald McLeish; Prof. Philip Young, Hemingway expert; critic Malcolm Cowley; his fourth and last wife, Mary Welsh Hemingway; and others. Broadcaster Patrick Hynan spent two years collecting the interviews for this program which also includes fragments of his novel, Islands in the Stream, to be published posthumously in November.

The life story of another writer, less widely known than Hemingway, but prominent in sports circles, will be chronicled in Voice of the Pioneer. Sunday, beginning May 24. He's veteran sportswriter Elmer Ferguson, who used to write for the old Montreal Herald. Now 85 he's still writing about his favorite subjects. He recalls the sports scene from the old Hot Stove League, the Jack Dempsey fights, the formation of the NHL, and nominates his choice for the all-time sports greats.

Now that the hockey season is over, two new series designed for easy summertime listening take over on Sunday evenings. Sunday — And Friends, a light-hearted program with the music of today and features of interest to holidayers and stay-at-homes, is hosted by Wayne Grigsby and Doug Lennox. It's followed by Something To Say, featuring notable personalities in conversation and performance. Guests for the May 24 show are Canadian conductor Boris Brott and his younger brother, cellist Denis Brott.

The indestructible Inspector Maigret turns up again on radio in two dramatizations of Georges Simenon's famous stories about the French Surete. Maigret and The Crime At Lock 14 will be heard the week of May 25, and Maigret and Piotr The Lett, the week of June 1, on Theatre 10:30. Budd Knapp again stars as Maigret in this continuing series.

For those of you who can't make it to Expo 70 in person, CBC radio presents a showcase of Canada's musical contributions to Japan's world's fair on the eve of Canada Day, May 26. Hosted by Lloyd Robertson, there'll be items on events on Canada Day and reaction of fair visitors to our music and entertainment. Among those who will perform on the program (as well as at the fair) are Ian and Sylvia, The Marshallow Soup Group, The Travellers, Claude Leveille, The Guess Who, and the stars of the Norman Campbell - Don Harron musical, Anne of Green Gables. The red-haired heroine of L. M. Montgomery's delightful books has been a long-time favorite with the Japanese, and even without the benefit of translation, the musical version should be a whopping success.

A NEW TYPE OF POACHER

Conservation Officer Austin Henderson from the Minden office of the Department of Lands and Forests reports that he recently came out second best in an encounter in Fenelon Falls with a new breed of poacher.

While checking the pickerel run at the Fenelon Falls dam, Austin met a large black Labrador retriever, which was very friendly and sociable. After mutual introductions, the dog promptly walked down to the shallows below the dam (for a drink of water, Austin thought) waded out, picked up a large pickerel, and trotted up town with the fish in his mouth, paying absolutely no attention to Austin's remarks about the pickerel season not being open yet.

Tell us, Austin, how do you serve a summons on a black Labrador Retriever?
